Hume PAC Meeting Expectations

By attending PAC meetings we, the members of Hume PAC, understand that:

1. we are expected to speak courteously and kindly to each other;
2. we are expected to listen to all points of view and recognize that all contributions from all members are valuable;
3. we are expected to work to resolve issues through due process;
4. we are expected to be respectful and mindful of our supporting role at Hume School;
5. we are expected to respect all confidential information;
6. we are each representatives of the Hume PAC and Hume School during our meetings, at PAC activities and whenever we are speaking with others about PAC or the School (in person and on social media) and we commit to speaking constructively;
7. PAC meetings are not the place to discuss individual school personnel, students, parents, or other individual members of the school community;
8. any person having difficulty following these Expectations will be asked by the meeting Chair to:
 - (a) step outside the meeting for a brief cool down period, or
 - (b) leave and not return for the remainder of the meeting.
